

A HEARTH

for the human family

Friday, September 20th Oblate School of Theology, San Antonio, Texas

9:30am	Coming Together for Peace Starting our time together in a spirit of collaboration, dialogue, and exchange
10:30am	BREAK
11:00am	Peacebuilding in the Age of Rapid Digital Advancement: Can We Keep Up? Fadi Chehade: Managing Partner & Co-founder of Ethos Capital
12:00pm	LUNCH
1:00pm	Choice of Workshops <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Dialogue among Christians: Local Ecumenism as an Effort of Peacebuilding2. Restorative Justice: Making Space for Encounter and Healing in Legal Systems
2:15pm	BREAK
3:15pm	Choice of Workshops <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. AI and Peacebuilding: Navigating Challenges and Opportunities in a Digital World2. Political Bridge Building: The Complexity of Peacebuilding Efforts in a Polarized Society
4:30pm	BREAK
4:50pm	Collaborative Conversations Dialogue and exchange on Friday's experience
6:00pm	Evening Program: "To My Father" Viewing of the Award Winning Documentary with Filmmaker Sean Schiavoli

A HEARTH

for the human family

Saturday, September 21st Oblate School of Theology, San Antonio, Texas

9:15am

Does the Fragility of our Common Home Make Peace More Fragile?
John Mundell: President/CEO and senior environmental consultant for Mundell & Associates, Inc.; Global Director of the Vatican's Laudato Si' Action Platform

10:15am

BREAK

10:45am

Choice of Workshops

1. Business and Economics: The High Price of Peacebuilding in Business
2. Religion as a Catalyst for Peace: Exploring the Role of Faith in Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding

12:00pm

LUNCH

1:00pm

Choice of Workshops

1. Dialogue among Faith Traditions: How Grassroots Interfaith Relationships can Help us be Artisans of Peace
2. Family Life: Being Artisans of Peace as Parents

2:15pm

BREAK

3:00pm

What Lessons Can We Take from International Conflict Resolution?

-Rebecca Cataldi: Senior Program Director at the International Center for Religion and Diplomacy

4:00pm

Continuing Together for Peace

Exchange and dialogue on where our collaboration can go from here